Puyallup Tribal Housing Department Application Process

To be considered for eligibility for any assisted tribal housing program, all interested applicants must submit a completed application packet provided by the PTHD to the Intake Specialist or Resident Services at the PTHD office. Only complete applications are accepted. Incomplete applications will not be processed, and the application will be returned to the applicant.

Each applicant must provide all information requested on the application and sign all necessary forms, documents, and certifications. All information provided and any statements made by the applicant are subject to verification. Intentionally providing false or misleading information is grounds for automatically denying eligibility for all PTHD programs and grounds for termination from any program if the applicant has been admitted.

The applicant must certify that all information contained in the application is true and accurate. The applicant is responsible for contacting PTHD and making any corrections or updating the application if any of the information contained in the application changes.

The applicant is responsible for providing all of the necessary information and accurately completing the application as required. Information that verifies all information that affects eligibility, family composition, selection, priority or preferences, annual income, unit size, determination of homebuyer payments or rent, and housing needs is required. Failure to provide such verifying information may be grounds for a determination that the applicant is ineligible.

Ability to Make Minimum Payments

A family applying for any of PTHD's rental or rental assistance programs must have an income high enough to cover the deposit, first months, and or prorated costs of moving in, and also the current minimum rent established by the PTHD to cover the PTHD's cost of operations for its rental units without exceeding 30 percent (30%) of the annual adjusted family income. Currently, that minimum rent is $140/month but may be changed from time to time by PTHD.

ELIGIBILITY CERTIFICATION

Once the application is complete, the application must follow the Eligibility Certification Procedure. The Eligibility Certification reviews and verifies that the application process, supporting documents, and income calculations meet the eligibility requirements in accordance with the Puyallup Tribe Housing Code and federal regulations

Notice of Ineligibility

Applicants who have applied for housing and who, for any reason, have been determined to be ineligible will be notified in writing stating the reasons for their ineligibility. The applicant shall be entitled to an informal hearing under the provisions of the grievance procedures provided in the PTHD Grievance Procedures Policy. All information relative to the rejection of an applicant shall be documented and placed in the applicant's file for future reference.

Waitlists

The certified eligible Puyallup Tribal member applicant with the oldest application date on the waiting list for that size unit in that program will be selected. If there are no Puyallup Tribal members eligible applicants available on the waiting list for that size unit in that program, the non-Puyallup Tribal member applicant who is otherwise eligible with the oldest application date on the waiting list for that size unit in that program will be selected.

When an applicant is selected from the waiting list, they must be re-verified as eligible under the PTHD eligibility guidelines set out in these policies. They must be able to provide move-in costs, the security deposit, the first month's (or prorated) rent, and other costs associated with move-in.

If that applicant is no longer eligible, PTHD will move on and select the next applicant on the waiting list.

An Applicant will be considered to have refused a unit that is offered to that applicant if:

- a. The applicant informs PTHD by any method that they are refusing the unit; or
- b. The applicant fails to respond to the notice that the unit is available within ten (10) working days of the initial communication of the notice; or
- c. The notice that the unit is available sent to the applicant is returned by the postal service as undeliverable for any reason.

If an Applicant is offered a unit but refuses, the following procedures shall apply:

- a. Upon the first refusal, PTHD will move on to the next eligible applicant, and the applicant will retain their position on the waiting list.
- b. Upon a second refusal, PTHD will move that applicant to the end of the waiting list with a new application date as of the date of the second rejection.

| All Changes in family income, whether an increase or decrease, must be reported to the Housing |
| Department within 10 (ten) days of the occurrence. |
| Death, divorce, or any other continuing circumstances affecting the family. This would include the |
| circumstances for any family member no longer residing in the unit. |
| Marriage or any addition of a family member. |
| If the family has a change in income, composition, medical or dependent care expenses that would |
| result in a decreased rent, and the family applies for such a decrease, the family shall be given an |
| appropriate adjustment. |
| Until the time for the next annual review, the family must report all changes, which would result in |
| increased rent, and appropriate adjustments shall be made. |

| the change. |

Upon the receipt of such report, and interim re-determination for family income after allowances will be conducted and the family portion of the rent adjusted if necessary, Failure to report the occurrence of the above defined circumstantial changes will require a retroactive rent charge when necessary or may be cause for termination of assistance.

Increases in the family portion of rent between periodic re-examinations are to be made effective the first of the second month following that in which the change in family circumstance occurred.

Decreases in the family portion of rent between periodic re-examinations are to be made effective the first of the month following that in which the change of family circumstances occurred; however, no downward adjustments may be made until all facts have been verified. In the case of loss of employment, downward adjustments will be made the first of the month following, then the date of occurrence, provided that 30(thirty) days of unemployment have passed before the change is effective.

A RHIIP Training Program

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Office of Inspector General

November 2004

Things You Should Know

Don't risk your chances for Federally assisted housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application forms.

| Purpose | This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying for assisted housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information. |
| Penalties for Committing Fraud | The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be: Evicted from your apartment or house: Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received: Fined up to S 10,000: Imprisoned for up to 5 years; and/or Prohibited from receiving future assistance. Your State and local governments may have other laws and penalties as well. |
| Asking Questions | When you meet with the person who is to fill out your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something, ask for clarification. That person can answer your question or find out what the answer is. |
| Completing The Application | When you answer application questions, you must include the following information: |
| Income | All sources of money you or any member of your household receive (wages. welfare payments, alimony, social security, pension, etc.): |

All bank accounts, savings bonds, certificates of deposit, stocks, real estate, etc.. that are owned by you and any adult member of your family's household who will be living with you.

Any money you receive on behalf of your children (child support, social security for Income from assets (interest from a savings account, credit union, or certificate of

Any anticipated income (such as a bonus or pay raise you expect to receive) deposit: dividends from stock, etc.); Earnings from second job or part time job;

A RHIIP Training Program

- Any business or asset you sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value, such as your home to your children.
- The names of all of the people (adults and children) who will actually be living with you, whether or not they are related to you.

Signing the Application

- Do not sign any form unless you have read it, understand it, and are sure everything is complete and accurate.
- When you sign the application and certification forms, you are claiming that they are complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that it contains false or misleading information.
- Information you give on your application will be verified by your housing agency. In addition, HUD may do computer matches of the income you report with various Federal, State, or private agencies to verify that it is correct.

Recertifications

You must provide updated information at least once a year. Some programs require that you report any changes in income or family/household composition immediately. Be sure to ask when you must recertify. You must report on recertification forms:

- All income changes, such as increases of pay and/or benefits, change or loss of job and/or benefits, etc., for all household members.
- Any move in or out of a household member; and,
- All assets that you or your household members own and any assets that was sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value.

Beware of Fraud

You should be aware of the following fraud schemes:

- Do not pay any money to file an application;
- Do not pay any money to move up on the waiting list;
- Do not pay for anything not covered by your lease;
- Get a receipt for any money you pay; and,
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay for anything other than rent (such as maintenance charges).

Reporting Abuse

If you are aware of anyone who has falsified an application, or if anyone tries to persuade you to make false statements, report them to the manager of your complex or your PHA. If that is not possible, then call the local HUD office or the HUD Office of Inspector General (OIG) Hotline at (800) 347-3735. You can also write to: HUD-OIG HOTLINE, (GFI) 451 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, DC. 20410.
