Puyallup Tribal Housing Department Application Process

To be considered eligible for any assisted tribal housing program, all interested applicants must submit a completed application packet provided by the PTHD to the Intake Specialist or Resident Services at the PTHD office. Only complete applications are accepted. Incomplete applications will not be processed and will be returned to the applicant.

Each applicant must provide all information requested on the application and sign all necessary forms, documents, and certifications. All information provided and any statements made by the applicant are subject to verification. Intentionally providing false or misleading information is grounds for automatically denying eligibility for all PTHD programs and grounds for termination from any program if the applicant has been admitted.

The applicant must certify that all information in the application is true and accurate. If any of the information changes, the applicant is responsible for contacting PTHD, making any corrections, or updating the application.

The applicant is responsible for providing all the necessary information and accurately completing the application as required. Information that verifies all information that affects eligibility, family composition, selection, priority or preferences, annual income, unit size, determination of homebuyer payments or rent, and housing needs is required. Failure to provide such verifying information may be grounds for a determination that the applicant is ineligible.

Ability to Make Minimum Payments

A family applying for any of PTHD's rental or rental assistance programs must have an income high enough to cover the deposit, first months, and/or prorated costs of moving in. The current minimum rent established by PTHD covers the PTHD's cost of operations for its rental units without exceeding 30 percent (30%) of the annual adjusted family income. Currently, that minimum rent is $140/month but may be changed from time to time by PTHD.

ELIGIBILITY CERTIFICATION

Once the application is complete, it must follow the Eligibility Certification Procedure. The Eligibility Certification reviews and verifies that the application process, supporting documents, and income calculations meet the eligibility requirements in accordance with the Puyallup Tribe Housing Code and federal regulations

Notice of Ineligibility

Applicants who have applied for housing and who, for any reason, have been determined to be ineligible will be notified in writing stating the reasons for their ineligibility. The applicant shall be entitled to an informal hearing under the provisions of the grievance procedures provided in the PTHD Grievance Procedures Policy. All information relative to an applicant's rejection shall be documented and placed in the applicant's file for future reference.

Waitlists

The Puyallup Tribal member applicant who meets the eligibility criteria will be selected based on their application date, priorities, and preferences for the specific unit in the program. If there are no Puyallup Tribal members or eligible applicants on the waiting list for that unit, non-Puyallup Tribal member applicants who meet the eligibility criteria will be considered for selection.

When applicants are selected from the waiting list, they must be re-verified as eligible under the PTHD eligibility guidelines in these policies. They must be able to provide move-in costs, the security deposit, the first month's (or prorated) rent, and other move-in costs.

If that applicant is no longer eligible, PTHD will move on and select the next applicant on the waiting list.

An Applicant will be considered to have refused a unit that is offered to that applicant if:

- a. The applicant informs PTHD by any method that they are refusing the unit or
- b. The applicant fails to respond to the notice that the unit is available within ten (10) working days of the initial communication of the notice or
- c. The notice that the unit is available sent to the applicant is returned by the postal service as undeliverable for any reason.

If an Applicant is offered a unit but refuses, the following procedures shall apply:

- a. Upon the first refusal, PTHD will move on to the next eligible applicant, and the applicant will retain their position on the waiting list.
- b. Upon a second refusal, PTHD will move that applicant to the end of the waiting list with a new application date as of the date of the second rejection.

Puyallup Tribal Housing Department REQUIREMENTS FOR REPORTING CHANGES IN FAMILY INCOME AND COMPOSITION

In addition to submitting information, as may be required at the time of the periodic re-examination of eligibility and re-determination of income, families are required to report to the Housing Authority the following changes in the family circumstances:

All Changes in family income, whether an increase or decrease, must be reported to the Housing Department within 10 (ten) days of the occurrence.
Death, divorce, or any other continuing circumstances affecting the family, including those of any family member no longer residing in the unit.
Marriage or any addition of a family member.
If the family has a change in income, composition, medical, or dependent care expenses that would result in a decreased rent and applies for such a decrease the family shall be given an appropriate adjustment.
Until the next annual review, the family must report all changes that would result in increased rent, and appropriate adjustments will be made.
Reports of the above circumstantial changes must be made within 10 (ten) days of the change's occurrence.

Upon the receipt of such report, and interim re-determination for family income after allowances will be conducted and the family portion of the rent adjusted if necessary, Failure to report the occurrence of the above defined circumstantial changes will require a retroactive rent charge when necessary or may be cause for termination of assistance.

Increases in the family portion of rent between periodic re-examinations are to be made effective the first of the second month following that in which the change in family circumstance occurred.

Decreases in the family portion of rent between periodic re-examinations are to be made effective the first of the month following that in which the change of family circumstances occurred; however, no downward adjustments may be made until all facts have been verified. In the case of loss of employment, downward adjustments will be made the first of the month following, then the date of occurrence, provided that 30(thirty) days of unemployment have passed before the change is effective.

The complete statement of policies governing admission, occupancy, and eligibility are posted at the Housing Authority Office 2806 E. Portland Ave. Suite 200 Tacoma, WA 98404.

I have read and understand the above requirements for reporting changes.
